

B O S T O N .

November 6. About a fortnight ago, a Cow at Malden bro't forth Three Calves, all full grown, and of the same Bigness and Colour. 'Tis said, they will now weigh at least twelve Pounds a Quarter, and will be brought to Town a few Days hence, for a Shew.

November 15. We hear from Leicester, that on Tuesday Night, the 30th of last Month, they had there, and the Towns adjacent, a violent Storm of Wind and Snow, accompanied with terrible Thunder and Lightning; whereby the House of one Mr. Earl was struck; and that two Dogs lying near the Fire, were kill'd by the Lightning which came down the Chimney; and tho' several Persons were in the same Room, yet none of them were hurt: 'Tis said the Snow was that Night above a Foot deep in the Roads.

NEW-YORK, November 26.

Capt. Phoenix in his Passage home, put into Crooked Island, the 29th of October, where he met with Capt. Furnell, in a Sloop bound from Jamaica for North Carolina, who having sprung a Leak at Sea, had put in there the 15th; and a Day or two after, his Mate and all his Men had run away in a Canoe, and left him with only two Negroe Men and two Wench on board, who he fear'd could not keep his Vessel long above Water.

A few Days before, one Capt. Bromley, of Boston, bound from North Carolina for Jamaica, had put in there in Distress, having lost her Mast and Boltsprit in a Storm on the 5th of October; a French Man of War then there had supplied her with a Jury Mast, with which she had proceeded on her Voyage.

By Capt. Hill from Jamaica, we have Letters of good Credit, advising that Markets are excessive low there for all the Northern Commodities: That Barrels of Flour lie on the Wharffs till the Rats eat half of it up; and will not sell at any Rate more than from 10 to 12 s. per C. and good Butter not a Bit a Pound by the single Pound.

WILLIAMSBURG, November 23. On Sunday Morning last one John Curtis, a Butcher in this City, having been a Gaming the Night before, and losing all his Money, his Horse, &c. was found on Bed with his Throat cut, of which he died the Night following: The Coroner's Jury sat on the Body, and brought in their Verdict Felo de se.
